

Time of Presidency: 1825-1829	Party: Multiple	President #: 6	John Quincy Adams
---	---------------------------	--------------------------	--------------------------

America at this time	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Presidential Hopefuls' personalities were a major issue of the election - Adams was high and aloof, compared to Andrew Jackson's down-to-earth style 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • All candidates supported tariffs and federal improvement programs • Adams loses electoral vote, but not by majority, so House of 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Representatives vote gives him the majority of States
Domestic Policy	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Tariff of Abominations plan by Adams's opponents designed to make the President look anti-protectionist with a veto, actually fails, as 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • the extremely high tariffs would help the New England economy greatly, thus allowing for the bill's passage • Anti-tariff protests lead 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • to a call for greater tariffs after Calhoun casts deciding vote in the House destroying old bill • Erie canal completed
Foreign Policy	No Key Foreign Policy
Aides and Advisors	No Key Advisors
Various Facts	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • American Dictionary of the English Language is published by Noah Webster

Vice Presidents: John C. Calhoun	President FactSheet by Trey Springer, for use with Murry Notes © 2004. All Rights Reserved.	Election Opponents: Andrew Jackson, Henry Clay
----------------------------------	---	--